

Sunday Night Nuggets • 2-11-18

Fulfilling the role that God has ordained for each member of the family is critical to peace in the family.

The understanding of roles is a positional requirement for a well-functioning home.

Authority is not punitive. It is the plan.

Authority is given for the purpose of carrying out the plan and purpose of our relationships.

Authority in relationships is clear. It is required.